FROM WASHINGTON. Washington, Jan. 9. Yesterday's Bichmond Examiner says it was reported yesterday, via Petersburg, that a great expedition of gunboats and transports, under command of General Negley, had left Fortress Monroe on the let inst., for some Southern port. From indications deemed unmistakeable, the enemy is preparing to make a grand demonstration upon Goldsboro or Wilmington, and there is little doubt that the first clash of arms will come to our ears from that quarter.

In the Southwest, the hostile armies are probably both too much exhausted to do anything for a long time to come.
